24. A survey officer deputed to conduct or take part in any revenue survey, by special order or by general notice to be published in the prescribed manner, require the attendance of holders of lands to assist in the measurement or classification of the lands to which the revenue survey extends and, when hired labor is employed for purposes incidental to the revenue survey, may assess and apportion the cost thereof on the lands surveyed, for collection as land revenue due on such lands.

Power to require assistance from land holders.

25. Subject to the rules made in this behalf under this Act, the survey officer may:-

Survey numbers and villages.

- (a) Divide the land to which the revenue survey extends into villages and the villages into plots survey numbers; and
- (b) Recognize the existing village and survey numbers, reconstitute them or form new survey numbers.

Division of survey numbers into sub-

26. The Survey Officer may sub-divide survey numbers into as many sub-divisions as may be required in the manner prescribed.

Preparation of settlement and other records.

27. It shall be the duty of the survey officer or the settlement officer on the occasion of making or revising a settlement of land revenue to prepare a register to be called the "settlement register", showing the area and assessment of each survey number, with any other particulars that may be prescribed, and other records in accordance with such orders as may, from time to time, be made in this behalf by the Government.

Determination of revenue rates.

28. (1) The Government may at any time direct the determination or the revision of the revenue of the revenue-rates for all lands in any area of which a revenue survey has been made.

(2) For the purpose of determining the revenue rates, the settlement officer may divide any area into units and in forming such units, he shall have regard to the physical features, agricultural and economic conditions, and shall then determine the revenue-rates for different classes of lands in each such unit in the manner prescribed and in particular, in the case of agricultural land, to the profits of agriculture, to the consideration paid for leases, to the market prices of land to the principal monies on mortgages and in the case of non-agricultural land, to the value of the land for the purpose for which it is held.

Publication of table of revenue rates.

29. (1) The settlement officer shall prepare a table of revenue-rates in the prescribed manner for the prescribed period.

(2) Any person objecting to any entry in the table of revenue may present petition in writing to the settlement officer within the prescribed period and the settlement officer shall consider such objections after giving a hearing to the objector.

(3) The Settlement officer shall submit the table of revenue-rates to the Government together with a summary of objections, if any, his decisions on such objections and a statement of the grounds in support of his proposals.

30. (1) The Government may confirm the table of revenue rates submitted to it by the settlement officer with such modifications, if any, as it may consider necessary.

Confirmation of the table of revenue rates.

(2) The table of revenue-rates confirmed under sub-section (1) shall be finally published in the official Gazette.

Rates of revenue to form part of settlement register.

31. The table of revenue-rates published under section 29 shall be incorporated in and from part of the settlement register of the village.

32. When the revenue-rates are determined under this chapter in respect of any area, such rates shall take effect from the beginning of the year next after the date of final publication of the table of revenue rates under section 29.

Introduction of revenue rates.

33. (1) When the table of revenue-rates for any area has been finally published, the rates specified therein shall remain in force for a period of thirty years.

Duration of revenue rates.

(2) Notwithstanding any thing contained in sub-section (1)-

- (a) revenue-rates may be altered or revised in an year after the expiry of every ten years from the date on which the table of revenue-rates was introduced, in such manner and to such extent as may be prescribed;
- (b) When the circumstances of a local area are such that a fresh determination of the revenue-rates is in the opinion of the Government inexpedient, it may extend the term of settlement by such further period as it may think necessary.

Assessment on holdings.

34. (1) The settlement officer shall calculate the assessment on each holding in accordance with the revenue-rates confirmed and finally publish under section 30 and such assessment shall be the fair assessment.

(2) The settlement officer shall have the power to make fair assessment on all lands whatsoever to which the revenue-survey extends, whether such lands are held with liability to pay full land revenue or land revenue at concessional rates or are held revenue free.

(3) The fair assessment of all lands shall be calculated in accordance with rules made in this behalf and having regard to the following principles, namely:-

- (a) No regard shall be had to any claim to hold land on privileged terms;
- (b) Regard shall be had in the case of agricultural land to the profits of agriculture, to the consideration paid for leases, to the market prices of land and to the principal monies on mortgages, and in the case of non-agricultural land, to the value of the land for the purpose for which it is held;
- (c) Where any improvement has been effected any time in any holding held for the purpose of agriculture by or at the expense of the holder thereof, the fair assessment of such holding shall be fixed as if the improvement had not been made.

Additional assessment for water advantages.

35. Notwithstanding anything contained in this chapter, the Government may direct that any land in respect of which the rate of revenue has been determined shall be liable to be assessed to additional land revenue during the term of the settlement for additional advantages accruing to it from water received on account of irrigation works completed after the table of revenue-rates came into force and not affected by or at the expense of the holder of the land.

36. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, all survey operations commenced under any law, executive or procedural instructions for the time being in force and continuing at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been commenced and to be continuing under the provisions of this chapter, and all revenue-rates in force at such commencement shall be deemed to have been determined and introduced in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and shall remain in force until the introduction of revised revenue-rates and such revised revenue rates may be introduced at any time, notwithstanding anything contained in section 32.

Continuance of survey operations and rates in force at the commencement of the Act.

Power of Deputy Commissioner to correct errors etc.

37. (1) The powers and duties exercisable by the officers referred to in section 6 may also be exercised during the term of settlement, by the Deputy Commissioner or such other revenue officer as may be specified by the Government for the purpose, by notification in the official Gazette.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner, may, at any time during the term of settlement, correct any error in the area or the assessment of any survey number or sub-division due to a mistake of survey or arithmetical miscalculation.

.CHAPTER V

LAND RECORDS

38. It shall be the duty of the survey officer to prepare a record of rights for each village showing the area of each survey number and other particulars and any other record or register, in accordance with the rules made under this Act:

Preparation
rights.

Provided that where for any reason a record-of rights cannot be prepared in respect of the entire village it shall be lawful for the survey officer to prepare separate records-of-rights for different areas of such village and notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any rule made there under, a record-of-rights, when finally published shall not be called in question in any court on the ground that it was not prepared in respect of the entire village.

39. (1) When a record of rights has been prepared, the survey officer shall publish a draft of the record in such manner and for such period as may be prescribed and shall receive and consider any objections which may be made during the period of such publication, to any entry therein or to any omission there from.

Publication
record of rights.

(2) When all objections have been considered and disposed of in accordance with the rules made in this behalf, the survey officer shall cause the record to be finally published in the prescribed manner.

(3) Every entry in the record rights as finally published shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be correct.

40. The Village council and Civil courts shall have jurisdiction to decide any dispute which is recorded in the record of rights.

Jurisdiction

41. The survey officer may, on application made to him in this behalf or on his own motion, within one year from the date of final publication of the record of rights, correct and enter in such record when he is satisfied that it is been made owing to a bonafide mistake.

Correction
of bonafide mistake in register.

42. (1) As soon as may be after survey and settlement, the Revenue officer shall prepare and publish in the prescribed manner a draft field index in respect of every plot in a village recording the status of the actual possessor and the conditions on which he holds the land and shall fix a date not less than fifteen days from the date of such publication, for filling claims and objections.

Preparation
index.

(2) The Revenue Officer, shall after giving the persons who have filed claims and objections and also the persons who have filed claims and objections and also the persons whose interests are likely to be affected, an opportunity of being heard, prepare the field index and publish it in the prescribed manner.

43. Notwithstanding anything herein before contained an entry regarding the status of the actual possessor of a plot and the conditions on which he holds the land in the field index as finally published shall, in case of conflict with an entry in the record-of-rights, prevail and be transferred to the record-of-rights for correction of such record under certificate of such officer as may be prescribed in this behalf.

44. (1) There shall be maintained for every village a register of mutations in such form as be prescribed.

(2) Any person acquiring by succession, survivorship, inheritance, partition, purchase, gift, mortgage, lease or otherwise any right in land or, where such person acquiring the right in land or, where such person acquiring the right in land or otherwise disqualified, his guardian or other person having charge of his property, shall report his acquisition of such right to the Revenue officer within three months from the date of such acquisition and the Revenue officer shall give at once a written acknowledgement in the prescribed form for such report to the person making it.

(3) The Revenue officer shall enter the substance of every report made to him under sub-section (2) in the register of mutations and also make an entry therein respecting the acquisition of any right of the kind mentioned in sub-section (2) which he has reason to believe to have taken place and of which a report has not been made under said sub-section and at the same time, shall make or paste up a complete copy of the entry in a conspicuous place in the village and shall give a written intimation to all persons appearing from the record of rights of the register of mutations to be interested in the mutations and to any other person who he has reason to believe to be interested therein.

(4) Should any objection to an entry made under sub-section (3) in the register of mutations be made either orally or in writing to the Revenue Officer, he shall enter the particulars of the objection in the prescribed form and furnish a copy of the same to the person making it.

(5) The objections made under sub-section (4) shall be decided on the basis of possession by the competent authority and orders disposing of objections entered in the register of disputed cases shall be recorded in the register of mutation by the competent authority.

(6) After the entries in the register of mutations have been tested and found correct, the entries shall be transferred to the record of rights and shall be certified by such officer as may be prescribed in this behalf.

45. The Deputy Commissioner may, if he is of opinion that any person has willfully neglected to make the report required by section 43, within the prescribed period, impose on such person a penalty not exceeding twenty five years.

46. Subject to rule made under this Act:-
